

Carrie Chan

Chief Administrative Officer, CMU OmniClear

Ms Carrie Chan is the Chief Administrative Officer of CMU OmniClear Limited. She leads and oversees the company's corporate governance, communications, financial management, human resources and other administrative functions to drive organisational development.

Prior to joining CMU OmniClear, Ms Chan was the Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Hong Kong Deposit Protection Board, upholding an efficient and effective deposit protection system to help maintain banking stability of Hong Kong. She had also served in various roles within the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, contributing to areas including corporate governance and development, policy formulation and market development.